FOREWORD

How well we remember . . .

Registration lines . . . 8:20 classes . . . chapel cuts . . . bookstore stampedes . . . lectures and pop quizzes . . . Homecoming football . . . Howard's Knob and Winkler's Creek . . . 8:00 curfews . . . Autumn leaves . . . library books overdue . . . 12:30 chow rushes . . . Christmas snows and Winter winds . . . Vet's checks . . . friendships . . . "Praise the A Club" . . . final exams . . . Spring rains . . . Maytime . . . dances and dates . . . caps and gowns . . . and that wonderful campus "Howdy."

"Alma Mater in the hills..."

We Dedicate

For her years of relentless service to Appalachian, through expressive music and sincere friendship, we humbly dedicate the 1948 RHODODENDRON to a noble and gracious lady, Miss VIRGINIA WARY.

Athletics

MEN'S "A" CLUB

The Men's "A" Club is one of the oldest and most respected organizations on the Appalachian campus. Composed of letterwinners in the four major sports—football, basketball, wrestling, and baseball—the club boasts among its membership most of the better known campus figures among the male population.

Requiring a stiff initiation for entrance, the club holds two "Hell-Days" per year. The candidates arise at three-thirty in the morning and go through a whole day in outrageous costumes, completely at the mercy of the "A" Club members and their sturdy maple paddles. "Praise the 'A' Club" resounds throughout the campus on the appointed day.

Showing a much more serious side during the rest of the year, the "A" Club handles all concessions at athletic events, serves on the gate staffs, acts as ushers, and keeps order at campus events.

Last year they began a War Memorial project in honor of members killed during World War II. This Memorial will take the form of a club house, and quite a bit of money has already been realized toward this purpose.

At their annual spring outing last year, the members elected John Kirk as this year's president; Tom Beach as vice-president; Bill Halstead, secretary; Doyle Ayers, treasurer; and Dub Akins as sergeant-at-arms.

NORTH STATE CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

The Appalachian Mountaineer Basketball Team, after finishing the regular season in second place, roared through the conference tournament with championship style to capture the North State Conference Title. Defeating the High Point College representation, 74-59 in the final, the Appalachian State

Causey all the way.

Cagemen won the coveted Loop Championship Trophy and gained the honor of representing this district in the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament, held each year in Kansas City, Missouri.

SEASON IN REVIEW (wrestling)

"Little Red" Watkins, Appalachian's master mentor of the mats, viewed his schedule this year with a shudder. Four slots on the eight man team had to be filled with inexperienced freshmen. Those freshmen buckled down to the task of learning the grappling game back in October and their excellent showing in the matches thus far this season indicate that the Apps will be blessed with a team of veterans next year.

Emil Tomick, Max Sparks, Danny Jencson, and

Chuck Harris, only veterans on the squad, have come through with their usual finished performances and to date the Mountaineers have won five while losing only one. Watkins is pointing for his fifth N. C. A. A. U. team championship in the tourney to be held at Appalachian on March 12th and 13th. Tomick, Sparks, and Jencson are planning another crack at National Intercollegiate crowns at Lehigh University in March and are slated for Olympic tryouts the last of March.

1947 BASEBALL RESUME

The 1947 Mountaineer diamond squad played an abbreviated schedule due to the inclement weather extending to late in the season. Playing only thirteen games, ten in the North State Conference, the Hoover charges won eight and lost six with six of the wins from loop teams.

Odlus Lee, fleet little centerfielder, led the Apps at the plate with a healthy .378 average. Lee was followed by leftfielder Bill Halstead with .372 and catcher Charley Hall with .346.

The Mountaineer mound corps was led by lanky Doyle Ayers, a portsider who notched two victories against no losses. Tex Craven won two while losing one.

During the past summer four of the Mountaineers joined the professional ranks and will be ineligible for competition this season—Bill Halstead, Sam Moir, Francis Essie, and Tex Craven.

During the '47 summer session a team was formed, under the managership of Johnny Hollar, on a semi-pro basis. The team was sponsored by Burt Shraker, a local businessman, and won 24 out of 29 games against the best semi-pro competition in this area. Harley Cantrell blossomed out as a pitcher and fireballed his way to an eleven-won one-lost record. Cantrell is being counted on heavily by new coach Bob Broome in this coming '48 season. Big John Hollar, 210 pound first baseman, is being counted on to furnish power at the plate.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL SQUAD

The Appalachian sextet completed a successful basketball season, winning a high percentage of a heavy slate, in 1948. The group had a nucleus of six lettermen at the beginning of the season, and freshman material plus several experienced players formed one of the best post-war teams since this winter sport has been resumed.

MAY DAY 1947

An historical panorama of music and dance entitled "The Old North State" was presented before the May Court and spectators. The Varsouvianna Club, the Modern Dance Club, and two choruses directed by the music department joined hands to provide a program which is to become a traditional one at Appalachian State Teachers College.
